What do you consider your overall strength as a designer?

Your weakness?

Your strength as a worker?

Your weakness as a worker (think of what situation you would be most happy working in. Where/what situation would be undesirable to you?)

Describe your ideal job. Include what you would like to do and WHERE? (large design firm in a major city, small design boutique?)

What special strengths do you have that would add to a group experience?

Do you consider yourself organized?

How do you think others see you?

Name any personality or work traits that I should be aware of. (such as procrastination)

Under what circumstances do you feel you learn the most?

Are you goal oriented?

What motivates you?

Tell me anything else you think I should know
